

Application for sitting the National Qualification Examination for Doctors (國家醫師資格考試)
in the Mainland

Under the “Mainland and Hong Kong Closer Economic Partnership Arrangement” (“CEPA”), Hong Kong permanent residents who are eligible to practice western medicine in Hong Kong are allowed to sit the Mainland’s National Qualification Examination for Doctors. Detailed information concerning the Examination can be obtained from the website of the National Health and Family Planning Commission of the People’s Republic of China at <http://www.nhfpc.gov.cn> or the National Medical Examination Center at <http://www.nmec.org.cn>.

Applications for sitting the 2017 National Qualification Examination are now called for by the National Medical Examination Center. All applicants for this year’s examination are required to submit their applications online. Details of the examination and online application are available on the website of the National Medical Examination Centre at <http://www.nmec.org.cn>. The application closing date is 22 February 2017. Applicants who have already submitted their applications online before the closing date are required to submit supporting documents in person to the Dental Council Secretariat for vetting and onward submission to the National Medical Examination Center on or before 3 March 2017.

Please click here for information in relation to submission of supporting documents. For enquiries and appointments, please contact the Secretariat of the Dental Council at 2873 5862 or via email at dchk@dh.gov.hk.
