Notice to Dental Professionals

Amidst the severe epidemic situation, members of the dental profession are reminded to stay vigilant at all times. They should follow the relevant regulations imposed by the Government on prevention and control of disease and the Code of Professional Discipline in making professional decisions for the best interest of the patients.

The Dental Council of Hong Kong
March 2022